June 2016

Preschool Educators: Teacher: Tiffany Shackleton
School Learning Support Officers: Jessica Honeysett & Maddie Ingram

Hello,

We are so excited to have our art work on show at the school's upcoming art exhibition – Drawn Together. The children were so engaged with the story of the Rainbow Serpent and were keen to try drawing and painting it. Please join us for the opening of the school's art exhibition on Thursday the 23rd of June.

In week 10 of this term we will be celebrating NAIDOC week. NAIDOC stands for National Aborigines and Islanders Day Observance Committee. It is a time to celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history, culture and achievements and is an opportunity to recognise the contributions that Indigenous Australians make to our country and our society. We will have some special events for the children to participate in which we will let you know about closer to the week.

Cooking Program

The children have been enjoying cooking each Wednesday and then enjoying eating what we have cooked for lunch. Our most recent recipes have included:

- Pumpkin soup
- Spaghetti Bolognese
- Chicken Nuggets with Sweet Potato Chips
- Creamy Spinach Roll ups

It is good to see the children being more adventurous with their food and trying some new tastes and textures.

National Simultaneous Story Time

Bimbi Preschool recently took part in the National Simultaneous Story time, where children from all over Australia sat down at the same time to read the same story. This year the book was "I got this Hat" by Jol and Kate Temple. The children enjoyed walking up to a classroom with a big interactive whiteboard to listen to and watch some animation to the story, then we tried on some very funny hats. When we came back to preschool we all had a turn at drawing / designing our own hats.

Zac – "There was a Cowboy hat"

Hunter – "I wish I was a pirate"

Harlow – "The lady was funny"

Tiffany & Jess.....

Will be away for Professional Learning in week 10 this term. Our Casual Annette who has been getting to know the children on Wednesdays will be working with Maddie. There will be no Books and Blankets Playgroup this week.

The children have been getting very creative at our recycling station. Please bring in any recyclable boxes and materials that could be used in our art area for collage and box construction.
